

Automotive

Mercedes CKD parts packed into boxes with specially designed dunnage that folds out of the base for assembly and back into the base for flatpacking for the return journey.

Due to their unique design, these cases can be built up by one person in less than three minutes. No pneumatic or electric tools are necessary.

